

DIPLOMA IN CRIMINAL & FORENSIC PSYCHOLOGY

Overview

This program is designed to provide students with essential and core knowledge in criminal & forensic psychology such as causes and reasons behind criminal behavior, using psychological mechanism in offender profiling and causes and types of sexual offences.

Program also covers forensic areas such as eye witness testimony, jury decision making and interviewing offenders and victims.

Course Information

Program Code	DFP
Duration	1 Year
Semesters	03
RQF Credits	120
Delivery	On Site
Schedule	Full Time / Part Time
Intakes	February & September
Modules	07

Teaching Institute

CIRP School of Psychology

Awarding body

CIRP School of Psychology

Entry Requirements

A/L 2 Passes or O/L + Foundation

Individuals who do not possess above entry qualifications could contact student advisers to check their eligibility through non traditional routes such as recognition of prior learning or related work experience.

Assessments

Written Examinations
Coursework

I was always interested in finding out why people engage in crimes when they very well know the consequences. When I found out about the Diploma in Forensic Psychology I was very happy to enroll myself. I enjoyed the content in all the modules and the knowledge I gathered has motivated me to study this discipline further.

Ashmidha Pathmanathan
DFP – 2013 Intake

Compulsory Modules

Approaches and Perspectives of Psychology
Applied Social Psychology
Theories of Criminal Behavior
Psychology of Courtroom
Sexual Offenders
Crimes against children
Psychology Project

Recognized by

For More Details

071 109 46 46 / 071 109 46 16